

exactly what you need in Pro Stock when you're separated by literally 10-thousandths of a second. There is no room for error," Coughlin said.

Coughlin also defeated the other half of the Summit team, Greg Anderson, who had won the previous two races, in the second round.

"They are multi-time world champions so any time you get by them it's awesome, to get by both of them in the same day, that's a tough feat," Coughlin said.

Line did clinch a berth in the Countdown to 1.

In Pro Stock Motorcycle, Phillips set a national record for speed aboard the Racers Edge Suzuki with his 6.886-second pass at 196.76 mph in the final round and he needed every bit of the power to defeat Andrew Hines' 6.909 at 194.16.

"We've been playing with different carburetors and that's where we picked up. We've been running crazy mile-per-hour," Phillips said.

Phillips, Matt Smith and Andrew Hines all clinched berths in the Countdown to 1.

None of the three winners from Seattle repeated so there will be no chance for a sweep of the Western Swing, which will conclude next weekend, July 23-25, with the 31st running of the Mopar Mile-High Nationals at Bandimere Speedway outside Denver.
