Race fans, this was a very exciting race. I was disappointed that a multi-car-pile-up took over several good cars early. Augie Grill, T.J. Reaid, and Mike Garvey were "on the trailer" before lap ten. All were favorites in this event. Grill was going for a sweep as he had won the Inaugural World Crown 125 Pro Late Model event and collected $7,000 the previous night.

Friends, in closing, I would like to thank Gresham Motorsports Park for a great year of racing! The GMP Officers and Staff said in the beginning that they were dedicated to providing an excellent racing facility for drivers and fans alike. And race fans ... they have "more than accomplished" their goal in their first full year!

I'll see ya'll next year at GMP!

Grill Wears The Crown In Inaugural World Crown 125 Pro Late Model Race At GMP

Grill didn't appear to need much Saturday night as he took the lead from Bubba Pollard on Lap 6 and never looked back. Grill's win wasn't easy however, as several challengers including Pollard, Chase Elliott, Colt James, Daniel Hemrick and Mark Day all took turns nipping at the Hayden, AL driver's heels throughout the all-green flag 125-lap event.
