

Jimmie Johnston, Kyle Busch and Ron Hornaday were the winners in their respective series of Sprint, Nationwide and Camping World in 2009. The drivers experienced quite a bit last year, increasingly competitive road course racing, tire troubles at AMS, 3-wide restarts as the new standard of a race, a dangerous crash at Talladega that injured fans. 2010 looks promising - and interesting as we watch how Danica Patrick performs in the Nationwide Series in her NASCAR driver debut. The jury is still out on that one...! Here's some of our most memorable photos from the 2009 season. Photos by MSA Staff and courtesy of NASCAR Media.
