

Atlanta Motor Speedway's Friday Night Drags Week Seven Results

by Matthew Simmons, AMS

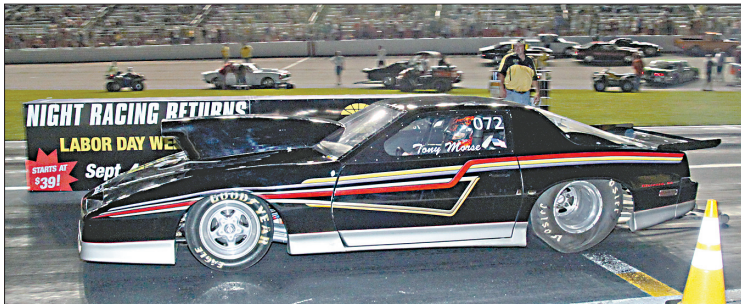

HAMPTON, Ga. (June 25, 2010) - Atlanta Motor Speedway's seventh week of Friday Night Drags opened with a crowd-pleasing burn-out contest and concluded with the points race tightening in Friday Night Drags' top division.

Arif Hosein of Fayetteville started the show by claiming victory in the Friday Night Drags burn-out contest. Besting two other competitors, Hosein held his 1972 Chevrolet C-10 steady during his entire 30-second window and his back tires soon released a massive plume of smoke. By the midpoint of his burn-out, smoke billowed wide and high enough to conceal the truck from grandstand view.

"That was awesome," exclaimed an excited Hosein after the win. "We've come up short on the drag racing lately, so I figured we may as well try [the burn-out contest] and we got it."

Atlanta Motor Speedway's Friday Night Drags resumes on July 2 for week eight's fireworks extravaganza and a Harley-Davidson special Show-N-Shine class. Gates open at 6:30 p.m. and nightly drag race eliminations start after 9:00 p.m.

Entry to drag race or for the Show N' Shine is just $20 or competitors can purchase a combo ticket for $30 to enter both. Spectator tickets at Friday Night Drags are just $7 for adults and children under six are free. More information can be found at www.atlantamotorspeedway.com. Photos by Tom Fransisco for MSA.
