

GEICO Powersports riders Canard, Metcalfe rebound big in Atlanta

Feb. 27: Sometimes a week can make all the difference in the Monster Energy AMA Supercross Series.

GEICO Powersports Honda riders Trey Canard and Brett Metcalfe turned bad luck in Indianapolis into podium finishes Saturday night in Atlanta in front of a jam-packed house at the Georgia Dome.

Canard, racing in the series' top division for just the second time, took advantage of a strong start and other competitors' mistakes to finish second. Metcalfe, who crashed in practice in Indy before rallying for a fifth place finish, remained patient during a wild Supercross Lites East race and finished in third. (Photos by Leon McVay and Fred Hanyon, MSA) See all the MSA photos at www.motorsportamerica.com or freemsa.com

