

Volusia Speedway Unveils 2010 Schedule with Emphasis on Summer Fun

Central Floridians have weathered the longest, coldest winter on record and Volusia Speedway has just what everyone needs to “thaw out”. Volusia Speedway Park has put together a sizzling schedule of racing action and family fun for 2010. Fans can preview the 2010 season for free when racers take advantage of the Open Practice scheduled for Saturday, March 6. Excitement begins flowing on Saturday, March 13 with a full racing program including: Late Models, Modifieds, Sportsman, Street Stocks, 4-Cylinder Challengers and Thunder Stocks.

Volusia Speedway’s 2010 season showcases the finest in DIRTcar racing every week with added fun for fans of all ages. Highlights include “Island Night” on March 27 featuring the Ms. Volusia Speedway Park Competition; Easter Fun on April 3, Top Gun Sprint Cars and Florida Mini Sprints on several nights; Rasslin’ & Racin’ April 24; “Uno de Mayo” on May 1; Double Points and Fan Autographs on June 12; the Scott Thompson Memorial Late Model event June 26; Weiner Nationals August 7; DAARA Vintage Cars on several nights, but an important addition to the September 11 remembrance of 9-11; $25 Carload Night on September 25 and so much more.

Volusia Speedway offers your best value in family entertainment every Saturday night through October with Fastlane Five Racing and a variety of special events. Volusia Speedway Park is located 15 miles west of Ormond Beach, FL on State Road 40. Additional information and updates will be available on the website – www.volusiaspeedwaypark.com.
