

Silver Dollar Raceway-Reynolds, GA: Jerry Barker Chevrolet ET Series

Dennis Deal managed to get by John Morris for the Super Pro win in the Jerry Barker Chevrolet ET Series race Saturday, April 17, with a great .008 reaction time and a .01 second over pass. Andy Castleberry ran dead on his predicted 6.72 dial-in to take the Pro ET win when Terry Adams drew a foul start. Josh Renfroe took another Sportsman win when Rickey Morris left .005 second too soon and turned on the red bulb.

C.J. Johnson ran the "Dial-in-for Dollars" pass and ran .03 seconds over his dial-in so the pot rolls over to our next Jerry Barker Chevrolet ET Series event. Parker Suggs continued to win in the 13-17-age Junior Dragster race by eliminating Phillip Makuch in the final and Jacob Phagan outran Dillan Kyle for the 8-12 Junior win.

Silver Dollar Raceway is a regional-quality NHRA quarter-mile drag strip located in Reynolds, Georgia, about twenty-five miles west of Warner Robins, Georgia, and ninety miles south of Atlanta. The track is located on one hundred sixty-eight acres of land and is built to the latest standards of construction for professional quality drag racing. The racing surface is a full sixty-foot width, bounded by a concrete barrier wall to insure spectator and participant safety. The shutdown area is three thousand feet to insure adequate stopping room for the fastest quarter-mile passes. Times are measured by a Compulink StarTrak, the same system used by the National Hot Rod Association at all NHRA Full Throttle Drag Racing Series events.
