

Hansen Still Happy Despite South Georgia Motorsports Park Disappointment

Despite early-morning thunderstorms and a poor weather forecast, the American Drag Racing League (ADRL) Hardee's Georgia Drags VI went off as planned Saturday at South Georgia Motorsports Park before standing-room-only crowds.

However, the inclement weather negated a scheduled fourth and final qualifying session that morning for all five ADRL professional classes, leaving Star Racing with rookie rider Anne Hansen 21st of the 36 Pro Extreme Motorcycle teams entered and outside the 16-bike raceday field. In the hot mid-afternoon, second session Hansen qualified the Lowe Toyota Team 12th with a decent run of 168.18 mph in 4.35 seconds, but was bumped from the field when she was unable to participate in Friday night's third qualifying round.
