

GRHOF Induction Banquet in Dawsonville, GA - October 22, 2010

Every seat in the house was taken and the crowd of nearly 200 eagerly awaited the night's event honoring five new inductees into the Georgia Racing Hall of Fame. Attendees were treated to a delicious banquet and refreshments before the ceremony got underway.

The emcee for the night was Capt. Herb Emory of WSB Radio and he did a fine job introducing the speakers such as Ed Clark of Atlanta Motor Speedway, Dan Elliott of Gresham Motorsport Park and several others.

For the first time, a full length video presentation, created by the Piedmont College of Mass Communications Department, featured the history of the inductees and interviews with the families of all five to be honored. "Those guys have worked eight days a week to make this dream a reality," said Hall of Fame board CEO Gordon Pirkle. "The result is a video presentation that will not only do the Hall of Fame proud, but will also show what Piedmont College's Mass Communications Department is capable of."

The five 2010 inductees were: Ted Edwards of Atlanta, Ernie Elliott of Dawsonville, Jack Etheridge of Atlanta, Laverne Kendrick of Tifton, and Jerry Wimbish of Atlanta.

The 43rd Annual Moonshine Festival kicked off on Friday, October 22nd as well and ran thru Sunday the 24th. Photos by Marci Watson, Motorsport America. For more photos and video, visit www.motorsportamerica.com.
