

Golden City Cruisers 8th Annual Car Show - Saturday, October 16, 2010 in Villa Rica, GA

Story & Photos by Marci Watson, Editor - MSA

This car show really impressed Motorsport America! It was a perfect day for a car show and every classic car owner in the area must have been there showing off their ride.

The number of cars literally spilled out of The Mill Amphitheater parking lot and into an adjacent business parking areas. You could not miss the location of this event - it was just across the railroad tracks off the main drag through downtown Villa Rica.

The cars were judged professionally by Parmck International and AMCA National Judges... boy, did they have their work cut out for them!

The food was great: BBQ, funnel cakes, hot boiled peanuts and other delicious offerings. Ernie Baker and the Thunder Thieves entertained the crowd with some rocking oldies that got your toe tapping and you couldn't resist hopping up and dancing along. There was a Cake Walk, a 50/50 and a $1000 raffle award to some lucky soul.

The most entertaining portion of the day was the Halloween Costume contest. The winner received $25 for the most creative outfit and theme. There were some kooky concoctions and some very cute and clever ones, too.

The proceeds of the Car Show benefit the 'Villa Rica Shop with a Cop' program, Fullerville Mission of Villa Rica and the Carroll County Emergency Shelter.

I really enjoyed this car show and looking forward to next year when the Golden City Cruisers host this event again. To see all the photos of the day's event, visit www.motorsportamerica.com

Interesting checkerboard design on Lamar Hicks' 1935 Ford Coupe.

A car fit for James.... James Bond - Agent 007. 1961 Jaguar owned by Eddie Cole.

First time I've ever seen one of these: a 1977 Nissan Fairlady. Owned by George Haldane.

Now this is the epitome of the classic Rat Rod. Junked up, souped up, and gassed up. Samny Adams, owner.

What is it about a red car that catches your eye? Frank Tarpley's 1957 Chevy Belair did the trick.

A cream & strawberry combo sets off the grill work on this '47 Ford Coupe. Berry Lee, owner.

Daisy and Dallas Chaco compete in the Halloween Costume Contest.

The oldies music by Ernie Baker & the Thunder Thieves was wonderful entertainment.

My camera just could not capture the scope of the whole event and how BIG this car show was.
