

The third annual Lakewood Speedway Reunion was held Saturday, August 7th at the Georgia Racing Hall of Fame, located in the Dawsonville Municipal Complex in Dawsonville, Georgia. This year, recognition and honor celebrated the Flock Brothers of NASCAR fame, Tim, Bob and Fonty, who were among the winningest drivers of record at Lakewood. Along with the three brothers, GRHOF honored the other members of the Flock family that made them a unique group in the annals of Georgia Auto Racing.

A wonderful lunch buffet was prepared and served by Gordon Pirkle of Dawsonville Pool Room, no one went hungry! The crowd was entertained by some fine old gospel musicians.

This year for the first time the GRHOF will induct the first champion motorcycle racer, Ted Edwards, into the Georgia Racing Hall of Fame in October. For more info: www.georgiaracinghof.com. Photos by Marci Watson, MSA.
