

New Senoia Raceway: Saturday, August 28, 2010

Second-generation sprint car racer, Matt Linder from Hoschton, Georgia captured the win in the 30-lap United Sprint Car Series presented by Good-year 3rd Annual Randy Helton Memorial Race at New Senoia Raceway on Saturday night.

The victory was Linder's second USCS win of the year. The race contested before a near capacity crowd around the 3/8 mile clay oval honored former United Sprint Car Series driver Randy Helton from Palmetto, Georgia who passed away from a heart attack in 2008. Linder's crew chief and father is former sprint car racer and National Sprint Car Hall of Fame inductee Fred Linder.
