

AHDRA Kickstarts Bike Week with a Load of Nitro

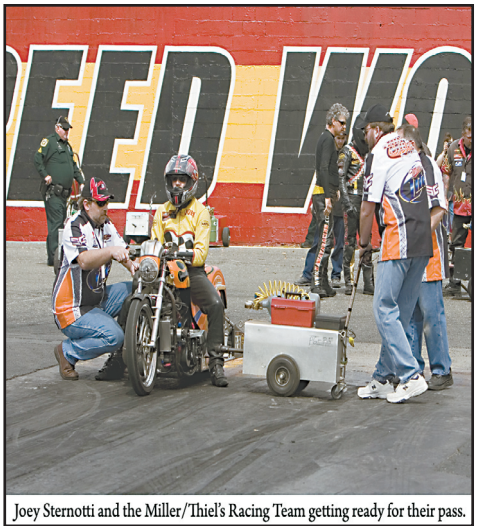

With the help of Tommy Grimes riding Ray Price's Top Fuel Harley entry, the AHDRA/Scream'n' Eagle Championship Series set the 227 MPH pace for the rest of the 2011 Florida Bike Week with their season opener at Orlando Speed World this weekend. With a gloomy forecast for Sunday's main event, everyone was anxious to get down the track as quick as they could. It turned out that the weatherman was dead wrong and we ended up with showers on Friday and two beautiful Florida days for qualifying and eliminations. Visit www.ahdra.com. Photos by Brian Williams.
