If you've been waiting for your chance to purchase tickets to the Labor Day Weekend of NASCAR Night Racing at Atlanta Motor Speedway, your wait is now over!

Tickets are now on sale for NASCAR Night Racing's Labor Day Weekend return to AMS. The sparks are certain to fly as drivers from NASCAR's three premiere divisions battle it out under the lights! All this action will help create the Biggest Labor Day Party in the USA, and you won't want to miss one second of it!

We'll start it all off Friday night with the NASCAR Camping World Truck Series. On Saturday, the action continues with Sprint Cup Qualifying and the Nationwide Series race, the Great Clips 300. Even more excitement is on Sunday as the Sprint Cup drivers battle it out to try and earn a slot in the Chase for the Championship. And before Sunday's race, you'll want to get to the track early for the Fast Cars and Guitars Pre-Race Concert Featuring Lynyrd Skynyrd! For just $59, you can be stagefront for both the concert and driver introductions!

With a down payment of just $20, you can lock in your seat through our payment plan option. Fans can also utilize the payment plan to pay for their campsite or reserved parking pass.

With tickets starting as low as $39, or even $19 with a valid student ID, there are seating options to fit every budget that will provide awesome views of the action for everyone! There is even great front-stretch seating available for only $59, but supplies are limited.

For a fan that wants to take in lots of action, Atlanta Motor Speedway has a popular ticket package that lets you get your fill! This ticket package gives you front stretch tickets for the Nationwide race on Saturday and the Sprint Cup race on Sunday. But wait, there is even more! This package also provides you with a Pre-Race pit pass for Sunday, all for only $149, a savings of more than $100!
