

The Great American Motorcycle Show

By Nancy Elles, Photos: MSA Staff

For the last 39 years the biggest indoor motorcycle show has been coming to Georgia. This year's was held at the Cobb Galleria on January 22nd and 23rd. As always it generates a huge turnout of all ages, riders and non-riders.

This show is truly a one stop destination for seasoned riders, beginning riders, or anyone thinking of taking up motorcycling. With over a hundred independent vendors of all sizes and price ranges the show offers any individuals to have their questions answered.

You can buy a bike from a local dealer; buy your clothing and gear, and all accessories. Among the other vendors that participate are travel destinations, trip planners that are geared toward motorcyclists and their families. Custom bike builders and designers. This type of show is not just for the "biker" stereotypes. It is for families enjoying cycling together, or someone new to the adventure. After you have picked out your bike and gear there are many vendors to customize your stuff. Have a patch or patches sewn on as there are several vendors available to do this for you. Before you leave get some legal advice from the lawyers that specialize in motorcycle injuries. They are there too! JB Walker & Rob Garter played the vibes for all that attended. It truly is a on stop shop.
