

Kyle Busch Steals Dega

Kyle Busch won the NASCAR Cup Series at Talladega on Sunday as the lead driver, Bubba Wallace, was spun out on the race's final lap, allowing Busch to steal the victory.

The race ran double file for most of the event. A different group of drivers would occupy the top few spots throughout different parts of the race as the tight racing left little room for passing. It did not take long for the wrecks to happen, with Michael McDowell spinning out after blowing a tire on lap two. PHOTOS MSA STAFF
Story continued on page 13

DENNY HAMLIN POLE WINNER

START OF 400 MILES

3 WIDE RACING

CHASTAIN GIVING CHASE TO THE FRONT

TRUEX JR. GIVING A LITTLE PUSH TO JOEY

HEADED TO TURN TWO

HAMLIN NEEDED A SPLASH AND GO

KYLE HEADED TO CHECKERS

KYLE GOT LUCKY!!!

CHILDRESS TEAM GOT HIM #2

BUSCH FAMILY CELEBRATING 2ND WIN OF SEASON